

January 15, 2010

Dear Heschel Honor Society Member:

We are pleased to announce that there will once again be an International Heschel Society Kinnus in the spring. This year's Kinnus will be hosted by Temple Emanuel in Providence, RI from March 19-21, 2010. We are very excited about the weekend, as it allows the opportunity for in-depth study and programs beyond those offered in a normal chapter, regional or international Shabbaton.

To register for the weekend, please return the enclosed form by February 22, 2010, along with the registration fee of $125. You must be a current Heschel Honor Society member to attend. All forms must be complete, with all signatures, payment, and information. Attendance at the weekend is limited, and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Please do not make any travel arrangements unless you have received email confirmation that you have been accepted to attend the Kinnus.

TRAVEL INFORMATION:

Those who will be flying in for the Kinnus should fly into Boston's Logan International Airport (BOS). Please plan your Friday flights to arrive between 8:30 am and 11:30 am. Please plan your Sunday flights to depart no earlier than 4:00 pm. PLEASE CAREFULLY READ THE FLIGHT GUIDELINES ON PAGE 3 OF THE APPLICATION. Those arriving by train should arrive at the Providence, RI Amtrak Station. Once we know everyone's travel plans, we will work out transportation to the hosting synagogue, which will be shared with you in a confirmation mailing approximately one week before the weekend. Additionally, please come equipped with a bag lunch or enough food to tie your over, as we will only be providing nosh on Friday.

FLIGHTS MUST BE BOOKED BY MARCH 1, 2010 TO RECEIVE A TRAVEL SUBSIDY.

Please contact Amy Greenfeld at Greenfeld@usci.org or 212-533-7800 ext. 1115 with any questions. We're looking forward to a great weekend that would make A.J. Heschel proud!

B'shalom,
